TERMS and CONDITIONS

- We may require a deposit of $10-00 per person, payable within 14 days of your booking being accepted by us.
- This deposit is fully refundable if the booking is cancelled by you, no less than 21 days prior to your function date.
- If cancelled within 21 days of that date, a fee of $250 may be withheld from your deposit refund if we have turned away potential bookings in favour of yours.
- We will accept confirmation of final numbers up until seven days prior to your function, after which time the amount payable by you will be a minimum for the number of guests as confirmed. If the number is greater than previously confirmed, then payment due is calculated on the actual number attending. The deposit paid will be deducted from the total amount owing upon completion of your function.
- Where individual payment is to be made, we require you to collect monies in advance for payment of both the deposit and final account. If individual payments are to be collected by us, then you will be responsible for any monies owing as outlined above.
- Sunset Superbowl requires all patrons to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner regarding dress and behaviour. We strictly adhere to standards determined by the "Responsible Service of Alcohol" (R.S.A) code. We request that you assist us in enforcement of those standards if and when necessary within your group.
